

The New York Police Parade—a part of the eight thousand men who were in line passing the reviewing stand.

Greeley Photo Service.

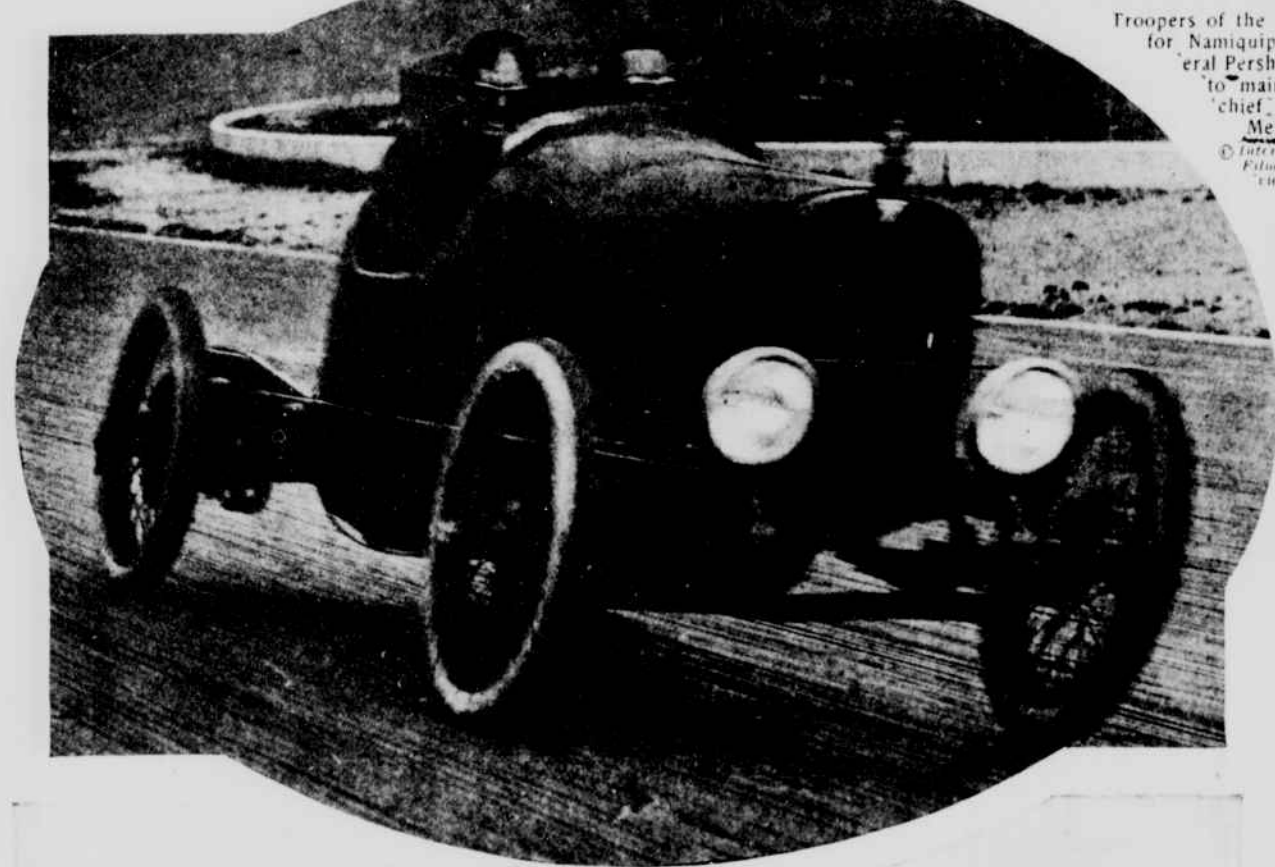

The "Medal Men" and Honor Squad of New York's Fire Department lined up in City Hall Park for the presentation of medals by Mayor Mitchel.

Greeley Photo Service.

Ralph Mulford, photographed in his Hudson "Super Six" just as he broke the world's 24-hour record at the Sheepshead Bay Speedway on May 1. The new record is 1,819 miles. The old was 1,581.

Troopers of the 8th Cavalry riding for Naniqua, where General Pershing expects to maintain his chief base in Mexico.

© International Film Service.

French rifles for Russian soldiers. The Russian troops who recently landed in Marseilles to fight on the western front were without arms.

Underwood & Underwood.

Douaumont has again been the scene of German attack. French soldiers are here seen in the quarries near Douaumont Fort, awaiting a German onrush.

© Underwood & Underwood.

When the Sussex was torpedoed. This photograph, taken by one of the passengers, shows them donning life belts.

© American Press Association.